PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

G'day

Have you ever been asked the vexing question "What is country music"? Even worse has someone asked you "Is that really a country song"? I've often attempted to answer this question which started me thinking how I would define country music.

It's a very personal and subjective thing. What is country to me may not be country to you. I have an idea! Country is what's left when you exclude everything that's not country.☺ The more I think about it, I believe the question should be "Is the song performed in a country style?" rather than "Is it a country song?"

Dehlia and I perform songs from the Beatles, Gene Pitney and Jimmy Buffett as county songs and rarely a social goes by without a song from the Eagles or Creedence (especially if Dean Penrose is there). These songs certainly wouldn't qualify as traditional country songs but when performed in a county style I would have no hesitation in classifying them as contemporary country.

In my father's day it was referred to as Country & Western; I have to smile when I hear that term mentioned today. American country music has evolved from the folk music of the south and cowboy music of the west. Smokey Dawson's songs are a good example of Country & Western and many of Peter Pratt's songs are distinctively Western in style.

Country music has evolved over the years and continues to evolve: from the Carter Family to Lefty Frizzell; to Slim Dusty, Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, George Jones, Willie Nelson and Waylon Jennings; to Conway Twitty and Charlie Pride; to Alan Jackson and George Strait ; to Keith Urban, Jason Aldean and Miranda Lambert. Jimmy Rodgers sang about trains in the 1930's and Troy Cassar-Daley and Bill Healey still sing about them today.

While there appears to be flexibility in the definition of country music, one of the strictest interpretations, particularly at music festivals/competitions, is that of the Australian Bush Ballad. Dehlia and I have performed at a number of Australian Bush Balladeer Association (ABBA) events where the number one criteria is the song must be of Australian origin. Enforcing this definition creates a whole new challenge. We usually manage to sneak under the radar with a couple of Rick and Thel Carey songs that are clearly covers of American songs but are accepted because they are associated with Rick and Thel. Even so, in the back of our minds there is always the fear that a big hook will appear from backstage and drag us off if we dare include a non-Australian song. So what is an Australian Bush Ballad? I turned to the ABBA website for a definitive description of the Australian Bush ballad; the best I could find was "songs sung in the style of Slim Dusty/Stan Coster". I presume this to mean: pick-strum guitar style with a simple melody and basic chord progression. I've grown up with and come to love Australian Bush Ballads; Camooweal, Leave Him in the Longyard, Lights on the Hill, Saddle Boy and Pub with No Beer are Australian icons but I've always found it amusing that in a bush ballad you can love your country, the bush, your horse, your home, even your dog, but strangely enough it appears to be the only style of music that rarely, if ever, mentions the love of a woman. Perhaps this is an insight into the mind-set of the traditional Aussie male from years gone by. Of course today we're much more in touch with our emotions and our feminine side.☺

The majority of country music clubs in SEQ accept a broad range of music under the country umbrella which seems to endorse my previous proposition that the most important qualification is that the song is performed in a country style.

The following membership applications were tabled for consideration at the March committee meeting: Dorey Edgar and Kerry Fuller. I welcome the following as new members to the club: Warren Shepherd; Helen Barkley and Maurice Page.

A reminder that we do distribute key communications through email channels so if you want to be added to the email distribution list send your email address to Club Secretary Dehlia Brown at email address - secretaryrmcmc@gmail.com

Oakey Country Music Festival

Words & Photos by Julez Lynch

A group of Redlands club members recently headed west to Oakey for their annual festival. Our competing members were Bill & Dawn Healey, Karen Maimon, Hannah Jones, Tiarna Shephard & Alice Guo all supported by Julieann Lynch and the house band. Everyone did a wonderful job and Redlands should be proud of our junior members. Alice Guo overcame a huge amount of nerves and stepped on to the stage for the first time and despite some stumbles she was awarded with Junior Encouragement Award. Hannah Jones did extremely well coming home with Overall Junior which was made up 1st Bush Ballad 2nd Junior Gospel, 2nd Junior Variety Act (Aust. Song & Performers Choice back to back), 2nd Junior Country Rock & 2nd Open Duet with Tiarna. Tiarna Shephard scored 1st Junior Gospel, 2nd Junior Bush Ballad, and 3rd Junior Variety Act. Karen also had a successful weekend with a 1st in Senior Female Gospel, 2nd Senior Bush Ballad and 2nd Musical Theatre. Bill & Dawn Healey shared with us their delightful sounds and sang some good ole numbers flawlessly. The overall winner for the weekend was Amanda Faulkner from Garden City CMA. The message from the judges for the weekend was that we all (especially the juniors) need to spread the word about festivals and try to encourage our friends to come and see what all the fuss is about. The festival circuit has seen a huge decline in the numbers of junior competitors over the last 12 months or more and if this continues we could see an end to the circuit as we know it. The benefits of performing on stage in a festival situation are priceless! Congratulations to all our members!

MEMBERS SPOTLIGHT - SYLVIA SOLTAU

Sylvia's introduction to singing came at an early age when her mother and her sang folk songs while doing the chores at home. The fun of singing eventually saw Sylvia and her mother join a women's barbershop chorus for a couple of years.

Her parents later joined country music, playing their accordions at a variety of clubs, festivals and concerts. Sylvia's passion for all things Australian, enticed her into the country music scene.

Sylvia's song choices reflect her early influence by female vocalists like Anne Murray, Dolly Parton and later Isla Grant. She has written a few songs of her own and is now planning her first country CD.

Welcome Sylvia to the stage and enjoy her smooth tones and memorable tunes...

GLADSTONE COUNTRY MUSIC FESTIVAL

Words by Julez Lynch

Gladstone eventually held their Country Music Festival on the weekend of March 14-15 after Cyclone Marcia pounded the north Queensland coast on the original date which saw the festival postponed. Karen Maimon attended the festival and represented our club performing in the senior/adult age category. She won a stack of awards on the weekend including section places, 1st Female Vocal, 1st Female Bush Ballad, 1st Female Country Rock and 1st Female Gospel. These performances led her to taking out Overall Adult Vocal and Best Dressed Senior for the weekend of competition. Congratulations Karen! JL☺

CMC ROCKS QLD 2015

Words & Photos by Julez Lynch

It was a normal Friday afternoon when I was leaving work and read an email from the club 'LAST MINUTE FREE PASSES TO CMC ROCKS', as the email was a few hours old I thought my luck would be dismal but I was pleasantly surprised when I rang Dehlia and she said that I was her first lucky caller. I took the opportunity to take three tickets so I could take my brother and Mum along with me to the inaugural CMC event in Queensland at Willowbank Raceway, Ipswich.

My brother and I rushed home from work and made it out to the site just in time to catch Lee Brice, Catherine Britt and Lady Antebellum whose shows all blew us away! Such stand out acts and not hard to see why they are world class artists. The crowd knew every word to every song and they were so appreciative!

The Saturday program included an Oz Artist Stage featuring Amber Lawrence, Doug Bruce and Col Finley to name a few. The Main Stage featured Maddie & Tae, Kacey Musgraves, Kristian Bush and Chris Young. Again, the interaction with the audience when this international star stepped on stage was just awesome.

Sunday we dragged Mum out with us to experience this amazing opportunity. We caught Laura Bell Bundy first up and yes - I even had Mum two-steppin' in the crowd with me! Then we nabbed a nice spot in the shade with our chairs and enjoyed Adam Harvey, John Williamson, Jared Porter, Adam Brand and Viper Creek Band closing up with Big & Rich.

What an amazing event and it will be a delight to see it return in 2015. Of course Australia has some amazing acts of its own but it great to see them on stage side by side with the big shots from the US of A! Margaret, Andrew & Julieann would like to thank the club for the opportunity to be able to experience this event.

It's that time of year again to pull out those song books and start practicing!

MARCH SOCIAL ROUNDUP Words Michael Sheehan Photos Rosie Sheehan

The evening started individual performances from Jan, Alf, Marion, Alan, Gary and Eve and Pat who redeemed herself with some upbeat songs. Other noteworthy happenings in this group were that it was Alf's debut and Marion's performance of 'The Good, The Bad and The Ugly'.

The spotlight artist was Karen Maimon demonstrating her continual development musically and adding depth to one of her songs "Blind" by wearing masks to simulate being blind. It was lovely to see such creativity and an element of risk taking.

John, Des and Lorraine, Jack Denis, Sylvia and Alick continued the entertainment until supper, raffles and the drawing of the lucky door prize and the members' draw. Thanks for the superb supper Debbie and your capable band of helpers.

This month's social presented the club with the opportunity to host Redcliffe Country Music Club as our guest artists. What a terrific show they put on. Well organised and resplendent in their red and black uniforms, their very capable musicians kicked their spot off with South of the Border. I had a suspicion they may have been referring to us south siders given they had travelled by bus all the way from the deep north peninsula. Then it was on to individual performances by club members with numbers including Neon Moon, Reuben James, Red River Valley, Mansion on the Hill, Hello Mary Lou, and Crazy Arms to mention a few. They rounded out their set with a rollicking medley of Hound Dog and Blue Suede Shoes - a lot of country and a little bit of rock and roll. Well done Redcliffe. Come again sometime.

Not only did Redcliffe entertain us but they helped to draw a large crowd to the social. We had visitors from Capalaba, Thornlands, Wynnum, Redland Bay, Russell Island, Forest Lake and even New Zealand, as well as club members.

The evening rounded out with performances from Tiarna, Hannah, Wild Oats, Felicity, Lex and Robin, Kiara, Denny, Rob, Dawn, Willow Junction, Bill, John and Garth.

Throughout the evening there were some truly wonderful performances and the artists were supported by some superb musicianship from various club members. Well done to all.
